A good night, already planned.

Six readers. One table. A little preparation, then a lot of conversation.

YOUR 75-MINUTE BOOK CLUB

Use any book your group has read. Ask about food needs in advance, and agree when spoilers can begin.

THE EVENING

00-10 MIN

Settle in

Pour drinks, choose a seat, and share one word for the book.

10-20 MIN

Give your first verdict

Fill in the rating sheet. Each reader gets a turn to share their score.

20-60 MIN

Let the conversation wander

Choose three or four cards. Leave room for different opinions; passing is always fine.

60-75 MIN

Pick the next chapter

Nominate the next read, vote, and agree on a date and host before everyone leaves.

THE EASIEST SNACK TABLE

A grazing board + tea

Set out cheese and crackers, hummus and carrots, washed grapes, and broken chocolate. Offer hot tea and cold water.

SHOPPING LIST / ABOUT 6 PEOPLE

- [ ] 8 oz cheese
- [ ] 1 box crackers
- [ ] 10 oz hummus
- [ ] 1 lb baby carrots
- [ ] 1 lb grapes
- [ ] 1 large chocolate bar
- [ ] 6-8 tea bags
- [ ] Napkins, if needed

BEFORE ANYONE ARRIVES

Print one rating sheet per reader and one set of cards. Set a pen at each seat. Put snacks in bowls and call it done.

PRINT NOTE US Letter (8.5 × 11 in). Print at actual size / 100%. Pages 2 and 4 include cut lines.

Good books. Better conversation.

Cut out the cards. Choose a few, take turns, and feel free to disagree.

01 / FIRST IMPRESSIONS

What pulled you in?

Was there a moment when the book won you over, or when you considered putting it down?

02 / CHARACTER STUDY

Who gets a seat at our table?

Which character would you invite to book club? Who would make the evening complicated?

03 / THE HOT TAKE

What would you argue for?

Share an opinion about this book that you suspect the rest of us might disagree with.

04 / THE TURNING POINT

Which choice changed everything?

Pick one decision a character made. What might have happened if they had chosen differently?

05 / THE LAST PAGE

Did the ending earn it?

Did the final pages feel satisfying, surprising, or unfinished? What would you have changed?

06 / THE AFTERTHOUGHT

What is staying with you?

Name an idea, scene, or feeling you expect to remember. Why did that one linger?

HOST TIP Invite everyone to answer before moving on. Save ending-related cards until spoilers are welcome.

The honest review.

One reader, one opinion. There are no wrong answers here.

BOOK _____

AUTHOR _____

READER _____ DATE _____

MY RATING

1 2 3 4 5

Circle one. 1 = not for me / 5 = loved it.

The best thing about it

_____

_____

_____

One thing I would change

_____

_____

_____

MY VERDICT

- ☐ I would reread it.
- ☐ I would recommend it.
- ☐ One read was enough.

What should we read next?

Write up to three suggestions. Circle your favorite.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

NEXT MEETING _____ NEXT HOST _____

Save a seat. Save your page.

Write in the details, cut out the invitation, and keep a bookmark for your next chapter.

HER READING HOUR

You're invited to book club.

Good books. Good company. A little time for you.

THE BOOK _____

WHEN _____

WHERE _____

RSVP TO _____

Bring your book, your opinions, and yourself.

HER READING HOUR

A little time for you.

THE SAMPLE EDITION

HER READING HOUR

Just one more chapter.

THE SAMPLE EDITION